2008 Thanksgiving Holiday

Please note that we will have a single sailing from Tacoma to Alaska the week of Thanksgiving, on Wednesday, November 26, which will call Anchorage on Sunday, November 30 and Kodiak on Monday, December 1.

We will not have a sailing on Friday, November 28, so there will be no call in Anchorage on Tuesday, December 2; in Kodiak on Wednesday, December 3; and in Dutch Harbor on Friday, December 5.

More details will be coming out later, but in the meantime, please use this information for future planning.

If you have any questions regarding this, please feel free to contact your Horizon Lines sales representative or the undersigned.

Regards,
